September 11, 2012

Rev. Dr. Daniel Paul Matthew spoke at the Geneseo High School on September 11, 2012. The Rev. Dr. was recto emeritus of the historic Trinity Church on Wall Street in NYC. He witnessed the horror of the attack on the "Twin Towers." Trinity's Chapel, located across the street from the World Trade Center, served as a 24-hour refuge and relief center for eight months after the attack. The Rev. Dr's message was one of strong emotion and conviction that "We the People" are all on this earth to be "our brother's keeper."
